CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

This paper now goes into practically every home in this city. All advertisers report splendid results.

Mr. Harvey Robinson who has been confined to his home in North Pitt stret for the past week, is able to be out again.

Mrs. Peter Hoy, 1206 Prince street has gone to Doube, Md., to visit her son-in-law and daughter, Rev. and Mrs. R. H. Barlett.

A meeting of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce will be held at 8 o'clock Monday night in the rooms of that organization.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Devine, Baltimore, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Devine, South Lee street.

Mrs. William I. Packard and her sister Miss Esther Brookes are visiting Mrs. Eugene du Pont, at her home in Wilmington, Delaware.

George T. Curtis and others have sold to M. R. O'Sullivan a house and lot on the south side of Franklin between Alfred and Patrick streets.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of the Alexandria Market Company to be found on another page. The proprietors are W. C. Baggett and A. J. Butcher.

Potomac Lodge of Odd Fellows will tonight confer the initiatory degree on a class of twelve candidates. This will give this organization a membership of 275, and efforts are now being made to reach the 300 mark by the close of the present quarter.

Sunday morning, at Del Ray Baptist Church, special services will be held in memory of L. Wirt Hardin who died at a military hospital in Autricourt, France. Mr. Hardin was with the army of occupation and had been in some of the hardest fighting. The community in which he lived and the church of which he was a member have sustained a great loss in the passing of this splendid young man.

HERE AND THERE

Telegraphic Tabloids Gathered From All Parts of the World.

New York, March 7—"All he could do was one step and goose step, and he did that all over my feet," Ida Meyer, Baton Rouge nurse ,returning on the Leviathan said of a German prince she met at a Coblenz dance.

Stevensport, Wis., March 7—Geo. Clark didn't want thieves to get his Liberty bonds ,so he burned them. Insane, the experts ruled.

Chicago, March 7—Presciptions always mystified Policeman Joseph Vavra. He drank some spirit ferment recommended by a friend for a cold, and was docked two days pay.

Wooster, Ohio, March 7—Wooster is breathing easier. Catherine Wertsten, afforded a week's excitement by starting seven "mysterious" fires in her home. She liked to see the fire department in action, she explained.

Tarentum, Pa., March 7—Clarence Haason has some "eggstra" fine hens. His twelve white leghorns produced 815 eggs in November, December, January, and February.

Richmond, Va., March 7—Arrested charged with being a deserter, James Kenny, colored, told the sergeant: "Just on my vacashun, boss." He is held for the authorities at Camp Lee.

GIRL HAS SLEPT 56 DAYS; DOCTORS FAIL TO WAKE HER

Kansas City, Mo., March 7—Lying in a state of coma for fifty-six days, Miss Adelaide O'Dowd, sixteen years old, is today offering physicians a baffling problem. They are unable to state whether she will regain consciousness.

The girl's heartbeats are normal, it is said; her temperature is usual and there is nothing alarming about her respiration. Her condition is traceable to an attack of typhoid fever. Every known means to awaken her have been tried, but without satisfactory results.

STARVATION IN RUSSIA

Population Dying by Thousands—Undertakers Cannot Respond to Demands—Not Wood Enough for Coffins—Cats Bring $2.50

London, March 7.—Starvation prevails throughout Bolshevist Russia and is killing off the population by thousands.

Undertakers cannot cope with conditions. There is not wood enough for coffins.

Food is so scarce in Petrograd and Moscow that cats sell readily at 12 shillings each.

Disease due to under-nourishment is rampant.

These are a few of the facts brought to the attention of the British government within the last week. They are supplied in most cases by reputable British subects, who came home from Russia less than a month ago. Several have lived nearly all their lives in Russia and came away because existence was no longer supportable. Their evidence is unanimous that the food situation is indescribably terrible and if means are not found to alleviate it the Russian nation may starve to death.

Facts supplied by the government are unanimous on another score—that the Russian plight is the direct result of the Trotsky-Lenine reign of anarchy. The Russian problem has ceased to be a political question and has become one of common humanity.

In their wake starvation, disease and epidemics have followed.

Death is reaping a harvest calculable in the thousands in the great communities like those of Petrograd, Moscow, Kieff and Odessa, In Petrograd alone famine deaths numbered 200 a day three weeks ago. Hardly a man, woman, or child any longer bears a normal appearance. With the exception of puffed faces and hands they are becoming mere bags of bones. Nearly everybody is suffering from some form of dropsy. In Moscow there is a glanders epidemic. Typhoid or "hunger typhus" is carrying off young and old everywhere.

Russia has made existence even more unbearable by a shortage of paraffine and other illuminating material. Many live in pitch darkness after nightfall. Their troubles are aggravated by lack of coal and wood. None of these is obtainable except by the very rich, or by those in favor with the Bolshevik government.

GRAND THEATRE

It was some crowd and it certainly was a great show last night. The witnessing of J. Stuart Blackton's most brilliant success is an opportunity seldom presented to the people of this city. Those who took advantage of it went to their homes more than repaid for their visit. This is the last day and if any of our people want to see something beyond the ordinary, something that surpasses even dreams, tonight's the night. On tomorrow beginning at 2 o'clock there will be a big double bill in which the celebrated Tom Mix will be seen in that realistic western drama, "Twisted Trails." To add to the program Monroe Saulsbury will appear in a Bluebird feature entitled, "The Eagle," Don't miss either show.

THREATENS TIE-UP

Berlin, March 7—A threat to tie up railway traffic with a strike was made by Deputy Muller today while presiding over a soviet meeting.

Muller further declared that the general strike "may be intensified."

Many republican guards were wounded in the street fighting in various parts of the city. The scenes of disorder, however, were still widely scattered.

Some radical chiefs changed their attitude of pessimism and threatened to develop a revolution which would accomplish what the first Spartacan outbreak failed to accomplish.

Government mastery of the situation, so evident a few hours ago, appeared at the time of cabling, to be precarious.

The fighting continues.

FOUR CANDIDATES

Race For Representative Carlin's Seat Promises to be an Interesting One Honor Sought by Aspirants From Four Counties.

The names of four candidates have thus far been mentioned for the seat in Congress from the eighth district to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Representative Charles C. Carlin.

The latest list of reported candidates includes R. Walton Moore, Fairfax county; Col. E. B. White, Loudoun county; R. C. L. Moncure, Stafford and Lewis H. Machen, this city, formerly state senator.

That there will be an interesting fight for the office is the opinion of those familiar with politics in the eighth district.

All of the prospective candidates and their friends are already on the job and preliminary arrangements it is reported are being made for an intensive campaign on the part of the prospective candidates and their friends.

The fight for Congressional honors will be watched with keen interest by residents of this city. Indications are that there will be a lively fight for the office here after the candidates have made formal announcement of their determination to throw their hats into the ring for Congressional honors, as all whose names have been mentioned have friends here.

RICHMOND THEATRE

No event of the local theatrical calendar of the present season is invested with greater interest or more anticipation of genuine enjoyment than "Life's Greatest Problem," J. Stuart Blackton's master production starring Mitchell Lewis, which will be presented at the Richmond tonight.

Commodore Blackton has given to the screen many remarkable productions, so you can judge the magnitude of this production when it is claimed by public and press that "Life's Greatest Problem," surpasses not only all of the Blackton productions, but any picture ever before conceived.

"Life's Greatest Problem," is so powerful, so thrilling, so artistic and so remarkable, that you will remember it throughout the balance of your days as one of the greatest attractions of all times, and to see this master-production at the Richmond tonight. It's the one big treat of the season.

FRANCE OPENS WAR ON FOOD PROFITING.

Paris, March 7.—The French government started an offensive against profiteering today, with the expectation of lowering the cost of living in Paris 40 per cent within a fortnight.

Fifteen large sheds, located in various public squares, were opened for the sale of government controlled provisions. More will be opened as soon as possible. These supplies consist principally of food bought from inter allied committees. The government will transport them from ports to the selling places by special trains. It is hoped this scheme will result in reduction of other commodities. through indirect compression.

The model scientific ration for an average man, as worked out by the Inter-Allied Commission at present costs 65 cents a day in Paris, 42 cents in New York, and 35 cents in London. Under the new government sales system the cost will be only 39 cents a day here. If the Paris experiment is successful, food will be sent to other towns, where it will be retailed either by the municipalities or approved merchants, subject to state control.

The minstry of food supplies also is arranging a system of women's restaurants in Paris, capable of serving 400,000 meals a day. Charges will be reduced 20 per cent by obtaining the principal supplies direct from the government. Three hundred thousand tons of provisions have been brought to Paris within the last five days.

Herbert Hoover has placed at the disposal of the ministry information obtained by the United States Food Administration, which is said to have proven helpful in forming plans for the new system.

RECOGNIZES SOVIET

German Cabinet Takes Steps in Hopes of Ending Revolution— Acknowledged as Economic Controller of Labor and Production.

Berlin, March 7.—The marine division has deserted to the Spartacans, is was reported in dispatches received from Berlin yesterday. Detachments of this division were said to have participated in an attack on the central police station Wednesday afternoon.

While Spartacan civilians were firing on the station from the tops of nearby houses, sailors crept near to the station and placed machine guns. Before they could be used effectively government troops cleared the streets.

The German cabinet, in an effort to end the revolution—the crisis of which has not been passed—has agreed to constitutional recognition of the soviets as economic controllers of labor and production, it was announced in official dispatches from Weimar today. A concession was also made for immediate and extensive socialization of industries.

The Spartacans have also economic recognition, but say this will not be sufficient—that full political recognition is necessary. Immediate and extensive socialization of industries, however, is a victory for the radicals.

After hearing the report of a delegation of majority Socialist strikers, which conferred with the cabinet in Weimar yesterday, a labor caucus today sent a mixed delegation of radicals, Socialists and Democrats to Weimar to attempt a compromise. The delegation will insist on the resignation of Chancellor Scheidemann, War Minister Noske and Justice Minister Landsberg.

ARM IN THEFT WAR

Buy 300 Revolvers and $10,000 Worth of Ammunition in Birmingham

Birmingham, Ala., March 7.—Having robbed or attempted to rob practically all the grown-ups in Birmingham, highwaymen Wednesday night turned their attention to young boys, and robbed Jesse Freeman, 14, of a small amount of silver. The boy was beaten by the thugs "because he didn't have any more money," and two parcels he was taking his sick mother were taken from him. The robbers then told him to "get up and run."

The boy notified the police, and, accompanied by two detectives, returned to the scene of the robbery The officers looked at the spot on the sidewalk upon which the boy stood while being relieved of his money, agreed with him that "it's mighty bad," and returned to the security of police station.

For four weeks an average of two to three highway robberies and innumerable petty thefts have been reported to the police daily. During this period but two arrests for burgalry have been made.

Figures obtained from eleven pawn shops, four principal hardware stores and three leading sporting goods dealers indicate that more than 300 revolvers were sold one day this week. On the same day more than $10-000 of ammunition was sold above normal demand.

INGOMAR—ETHEL CLAYTON

Ethel Clayton comes to the Ingomar tonight in her latest Paramount picture, "Maggie Pepper," based upon the famous play by the late Charles Klein, who went down on the Lusitania.

Rose Stahl appeared in the stage version of the play and made one of the greatest hits of her career in it. Miss Clayton duplicates on the screen the success Miss Stahl achieved on the stage.

Maggie is a department store girl with more than the usual amount of difficulties. At the same time, however, she has more than the usual amount of pluck. Pepper is her last name, and probably Ginger is her middle name.

Playing opposite Miss Clayton is Elliott Dexter. And as if that weren't enough, Winifred Greenwood, Tully Marshall and Raymond Hatton also appear in the cast.

SAILORS ROB AND RIOT

Amsterdam, March 7—Fifteen thousand armed German sailors are holding Munich in a reign of terror, according to travelers arriving here from Kiel today. There is much pillaging and rioting.

HILARY A. HERBERT DEAD

Was Secretary of Navy In Cleveland's Second Administration

Tampa, Fla., March 7.—Hilary A. Herbert, Secretary of the Navy during Grover Cleveland's second term, died here yesterday at the age of 65 years.

Mr. Herbert had been in feeble health for a number of years. He had spent the winter here and was preparing to leave last night for Montgomery, Ala., when stricken.

Throughout the Civil War, Mr. Herbert served as an officer of the Eighth Alabama Volunteers and at the close was colonel of the regiment. He was active for 50 years in Confederate veteran organizations and was the author of several works dealing with the problem of the South before and after the war.

A native of Laurens, S. C., Mr. Herbert went to Alabama with his parents when 13 years old and made his home there until he moved to Washington to practice law in 1897. He was elected to the Forty-fifth Congress, when he was appointed to the Cabinet on President Cleveland's second inauguration in 1893.

Greatly worried over the league of nations controversy and the situation in Congress, Mr. Herbert worked until late Wednesday night on a speech which he expected to deliver at Montgomery. His family believes that hastened his death.

FOOT CAUGHT IN TRACK

Little Girl, Unable to Extricate Herself, Killed by Locomotive

Unable to release herself when her foot became wedged between a section of boardwalk and railroad track at the Fort avenue and Race street crossing of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad at Baltimore yesterday afternoon, Mildred Mehn, six years old, was struck by an engine and instantly killed. A neighbor, Mrs. Mary Jordan, who attempted to free the child, was seriously injured.

Although the child made desperate efforts to free herself, she was unable to do so. Mrs. Jordan, who also was crossing the tracks several paces ahead ,heard the little one scream, and turning around saw the child tugging frantically at her foot, while a shifting engine rapidly bore down on her. The woman rushed to the girl's assistance, but before she could free her the engine struck them. Mrs. Jordan was hurled to the side of the track, while Mildred, being held fast was terribly crushed.

A watchman at the crossing ran to the Mehn home and notified the mother. When Mrs. Mehn arrived at the scene of the accident, men who had been working in the neighborhood had succeeded in getting the little girl free and laid her body by the side of the tracks. The mother took her in her arms and carried her home.

Clarence H. Straw, 37 years old engineer in charge of the shifting engine, was arrested. He was greatly affected by the accident, declaring he made desperate efforts to stop his engine but was unable to do so.

ADMIT FAILURE

Berlin, March 7—Radical leaders today admitted failure of the new revolutionary movement.

The government appears to be master of the situation.

Ruthless methods were used in dispersing crowds during the disorders. In the Alexander Platz yesterday afternoon several persons were killed and wounded when government troops used gas, machine guns, and tanks to break up a mob.

With the attempted general strike dragging uncertainly, Radical Leaders Haase and Barth and several others pessimistically admitted the movement had collapsed through lack of support. They said the revolt was not properly organized, and that railroad employes and office workers had refused to participate in it. A large number of Radicals, disclaiming responsibility for the disorders, assert that bandits and terrorists took advantage of the opportunity to go on the rampage, and that they caused the riots and street fights.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our thanks to our relatives, neighbors and friends, for their kindness, sympathy, and beautiful floral tributes in this time of our bereavement.

Josephine Tomlin and family.

FLIES TO NEW YORK

Assistant Secretary of War Makes Trip in Two and One Half Hours

New York, March 7.—Benedict Crowell, Assistant Secretary of War, landed at Hazelhurst Field, at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon after a 2 and one half hour flight from Washington in a bombing plane with Senator Key Pittman, of Nevada, and Major Maurice Connolly, former Congressman from Iowa. They came to attend the aeronautical exposition in this city.

Preceding the Assistant Secretary of War by 1 hour and 28 minutes, Major General William L. Kenly, director of the Division of Military Aeronautics, landed at Hazelhurst Field after a flight of 1 hour and 43 minutes, the fastest trip General Kenley ever made between Washington and Mineloa. The plane was equipped with a 400- horsepower Liberty Motor.

Washington, March 7.—After smashing all flying records between Washington and New York by covering the distance in 80 minutes in a De Haviland 4 plane, Col. H. A. Dargue, of the bureau of military aeronautics, and Lieut. Philip Lucas, adjutant at Bolling field, landed at Anacostia at 12:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon. It was an official nonstop flight.

About two weeks ago Lieut. Frank H. Harmon, army aviator at Bolling field, Anacostia, covered the distance over the same route in 85 minutes actual flying time, but was forced to land in Philadelphia to take on a fresh supply of gasoline. He used a La Pere scout plane, which is the fastest model owned by the army, but is not suited to long-distance flights, as its tanks carry only a limited supply of gasoline. His average speed was 168 miles an hour.

Taking turns in acting as pilots of the machine, Col. Dargue and Lieut. Lucas left Washington at 10:45 a. m. in a light drizzle of rain Wednesday morning, and landed at Hazelhurst field, 15 miles beyond New York city, on Long Island, at 12:15 p. m., without making any stops.

REPUDIATES AUSTRIAN DEBT.

Czech Government Refuses to Pay March Loan Campaign.

Prague, March 7.——M. Tusar, the Czech-Slovak plenipotentiary at Vienna, has issued an official declaration that the Czech Government refuses to pay the March coupons on the Austrian war loan or assume part of the pre-war debts of Austria-Hungary. Such action, he declared, would be a crime against the Entente Allies.

The Supreme Council of the Peace Conference, on February 25, was reported to have decided that the coupons of the Austro-Hungarian debt, falling due on March 1, should be paid. The inter-Allied financial commission told the Council that there were funds in the banks of the former Hapsburg Empire to make the payment. The Czechs and other independent political units objected, but the Council met the objections by deciding that the use of the common funds in the payment on the war debt would not be construed as obligating them for the future.

EX-MARSHAL GETS 19-YEAR SENTENCE

Thomson, Ga., March 7—John M. Barnes, former United States marshal for the southern district of Georgia, today was under sentence of nineteen years in the penitentiary for shooting and killing his brother-in-law, J. O. J. Lewis, on February 3. The jury, which brought in its verdict of manslaughter late last night, deliberated only a few minutes. Sentence was immediately pronounced by Judge Hammond.

Attorneys for the defense announced they would move for a new trial when court opened today.

FACTORY SOLD

Building at Southwest Corner of Prince and Fairfax Streets to be Used for Business Enterprise

The big four story brick building at the southeast corner of Prince and Fairfax streets, has been sold by Miss Julia C. Lindsly, of Washington, to Judge J. K. M. Norton, of this city.

Judge Norton stated this morning that this building will be used for a business enterprise.

In former years this building was known as the Green furniture factory and in more recent years had been used as a shoe factory.

MR. WILSON'S ADDRESS

New Era Attitude Produced in Paris When His New York Speech is Reproduced—London Papers in Support.

Paris, March 7.—When President Wilson returns to France he will find a new era of good feeling awaiting him, and consequently the workings of the Peace Conference are likely to progress faster.

Mr. Wilson's New York address, which yesterday's papers reproduced in full, has helped materially to produce a new attitude. Whereas before the President's first visit only the radical press prepared to receive him with acclaim, the conservative organs now speak kindly of his ideas, and this is true particularly of papers representing the government's views.

The French now feel they understand Mr. Wilson better than he understands them. Talking things over and digesting new ideas has helped to promote a better understanding.

Putting things crudely, the French papers now admit Wilson wasn't such a fool after all." They have come round to his way of thinking on many subjects while they see he has adopted theirs on others. Notably on the subject of economic treatment of Germany and the other defeated countries the French view has become like the American, namely, that the Peace Conference must look forward rather than backward, and that the defeated enemies are all human.

London, March 7.—London morning newspapers yesterday generally supported President Wilson's stand on the league of nations, emphasizing their belief that American opposition results from partisan politics, and that he will finally win Congress to his ideals.

CANDY DEPARTMENT

It is with pleasure the Gazette notes the advance of every interest in our city and it is also gratifying to see our merchants expanding and increasing facilities as the days go by. As will be seen by their advertisement the Alexandria Cach Grocery have added a candy department to their already nicely equipped store and it is safe to say that you could select no better place to secure the sweets of life than there.

MAD DOG INVADES SCHOOL

Attacks Seven Children and Their Teacher, Who Fights it Bravely

Bradford, Pa., March 7.—Dashing into a crowded schoolroom at South Bradford, late yesterday afternoon, just as the pupils, all small children, were preparing to quit their studies for the day, a dog believed to have been suffering from rabies attacked Miss Mary Kernan, biting its victims several times before it could be driven from the building. Miss Kernan, suffering from several lacerations where the dog's teeth had sunk into her flesh, fought the brute viciously for several minutes as she attempted to save her pupils.

Through a door opened for the children to march out the dog entered and snapped at every child in its path. The children became panic-stricken and several collapsed from fright, and seven of these were the canine's victims. After Miss Kernan had driven it from the building the dog crossed the street to the greenhouse of Albert Bly and bit Bly, who shot it after fighting it for several minutes.

MENACED BY BOLSHEVISM

Their European Sisters Appeal to Peace Conference to Save Them From Curse.

Paris, March 7.—Madame Jules Siegfried, president of the National Council of Women of France, has addressed a letter to Premier Clemenceau, as president of the peace conference, asking him to use his influence to have measures taken "to save thousands of innocent victims in Russia from the suffering and shame awaiting them through the socialization by the Bolshevists of all women between the ages of eighteen and twenty-five years."

"In the name of the mothers of women," the letter adds, "we ask the conference to interfere in this matter."

The Union of Russian Women in Switzerland has sent Premier Clemenceau a telegram in the same sense.

TRUSTING WILSON

When the President stated in his speech in the Metropolitan Opera House in New York on the eve of his departure for Europe that he would convey to the people on the other side of the water the inspiring message "that an overwhelming majority of American people is in favor of the league of nations," he correctly judged the intensity of their desire that the peace conference shall not conclude its labors until agreement has been reached upon some form of covenant by which the nations bind themselves together to safeguard the future peace of the world. When, in fullness of this confidence of voicing American aspiration and purpose, he pledged that he would not return to the United States until the nations of the world were assured of the permanency of peace as the Richmond Times Dispatch says, he gave the ringing answer that he should have made to the unprincipled, unpatriotic partisan campaign on the part of Republican leaders to weaken his position in the conference by creating a false impression as to attitude of the American people toward the league. Hence, the President was standing on firm ground when he hurled at these short sighted politicians, out of touch with the great currents of human thought, not alone of the world, but of their own country as well, the defiant challenge that "No party has the right to appropriate this issue, and no party will, in the long run, dare oppose it."

The American people are not afraid to trust the President to complete the great work he has undertaken, with settled enthusiasm, of committing this country to a covenant designed to secure permanently the peace of the world by refusing longer to tolerate international crimes.

AMERICA WILL NOT FORGET

Alexandrians whose business or inclinations carry them to Washington often meet upon the streets of that city maimed soldiers, young men who went to France and fought to rid that country of Hun invaders. Some have lost legs, other arms, while some are suffering from partial blindness. A certain percentage were gassed during the time they were "over there," and they are passing through a long and tedious convalescence. These brave men receive the sympathy which is their due.

President Wilson, in a statement published in the issue of Right About, the official publication of debarkation hospital No. 3, of New York, declared America would not forget the sacrifices that American soldiers wounded in France had made and that their wounds "are the noblest badges of honor any man has ever worn." The statement was sent to the magazine last night just after the President had delivered his opera house address.

"I could tell you," he wrote, "what the sacrifices you have made have meant to the world. I could tell you what history, for all time to come will say of you and the sufferings you have experienced on your great crusade. But these things other men will tell you.

"I prefer to remind you that the wounds you bear are the noblest badges of honor any man has ever worn; that they exalt you to a supreme place in the minds and hearts of your countrymen and of all the world. I prefer to assure you America realizes she has no more solemn obligations, no more patriotic duty than to express in practical terms the gratitude every man— woman and child—feels for every one of you. of you.

"America will not forget."

TO COMBAT ILLITERACY

The Virginia Co-operative Educational Association has launched a movement looking to the elimination of illiteracy from the state by the establishment of rural schools in neighborhood centres and the introduction of night schools.

It is an old saying that ignorance is a voluntary misfortune, and this was made plain in Alexandria many years ago when an attempt to relieve existing conditions was made by the City School Board. A night school was established for the benefit of youths in their teens who were employed during the day. A teacher was procured and every means possible adopted to make the school interesting. About that time moving pictures were introduced in Alexandria, and it soon became apparent to the school officials that a miscarriage in their good motives was inevitable. But "two or three" attended, and the Alexandria night school soon passed out of existence.

We hope, however, that the efforts of the Virginia Co-operative Educational Association will meet with more success than that of the Alexandria School Board.

STREET FIGHTS IN BERLIN

Berlin, March 7.—Street fighting has broken out with renewed violence.

After the rebels appeared to have been crushed and radical leaders admitted defeat, the Spartacans rallied.

The general strike, which almost flickered out, seemed to be gaining strength today.

BOLSHEVIKI SEEK BIG LOAN IN U. S.

Stockholm, March 7.—The Soviet government of Russia hopes to be able to arrange a big loan in America and is preparing to offer in exchange important mining and railroad concessions, according to Petrograd advices received here.

ELECT DR. BLACKWELL

Memphis, Tenn., March 7—Dr. H. E. Blackwell, president of Randolph-Macon College, Virginia, yesterday was elected president of the Educational Association of the Methodist Episcopal Church South. Other officers elected were J. M. Williams, president of Galloway College, Arkansas, first vice president; Dr. J. W. Bergin, of the Central Texas Conference, second vice-president, and W. E. Hogan, assistant secretary of education, Nashville, Tenn, re-elected secretary and treasurer.

LANSBURGH & BRO

Washington, D. C.

54-Inch Navy Blue Serge $1.69

Here is an unusual Serge bargain quoted at a pre-war price. Looking up our records we find that this same fabric retailed for more in 1914. The price just a short while before the armistice was signed was $3.00. So upon comparison, you'll note the extreme disparity of price now. Guaranteed all pure wool first quality. Non-crushable. Full 54 inches wide. In a rich shade of dark navy blue.

$5.50 54-In. Black Broadcloth, Yd., $3.98

Our Highest Grade Black Chiffon Broadcloth. Pure dye, full 55 inches wide. Rich, satin face. For a day reduced to $3.98.

$5.00 54-Inch Jersey Cloth $3.69.

All-wool Black and Navy Blue Extra Quality 54-inch Jersey Cloth. Only a limited quantity. Nice for one-piece dresses.

Keep the Children Well

To keep the little ones well, sturdy and happy, free of coughs, colds, croup, little fevers and inflamed throats, use

Foley's Honey and Tar.

It is carefully made of selected remedies that loosen and break up a cough, stop croup and ease an aching inflamed throat, and it is clean of all narcotics.

The prompt use of Foley's Honey and Tar is very helpful for whooping cough, and the restless feverish state that attends children's diseases.

M. T. Davis, Bearville, W. Va., writes—"One of my patrons had a small child taken with croup. They came to my store and bought a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar and before morning the child was entirely recovered."

PRESIDENT SEES MOVIES OF SELF

Aboard the U. S. S. George Washington, March 6.—(delayed).—President Wilson tonight, after a day of rest, attended the ship's movies, where several reels of his reception in Boston were shown. Both the President and Mrs. Wilson laughed heartily at some of the scenes.

The Presidential party is keeping in close touch with world doings, on both sides of the Atlantic, by wireless.

HINDENBURG IS BLUE

Sees East Germany Overrun by Bolshevik Hordes

Berlin, March 7.—The military situation on the eastern front is painted in blackest colors by Field Marshal von Hindenburg in an interview printed here. The Field Marshal declares that unless the population generally rallies to the defense of their homes and families it will be impossible to ward off attacks by Bolshevik hordes.

"The expectations of the Poles and the Entente that the Poles will succeed to the German inheritance in the east will be blasted," he says. "I know the Poles and the country in the east will belong either to us or to the Bolsheviki."

Zurich, Switzerland, March 7.—Field Marshal von Hindenburg has placed himself at the disposal of the Government in any action it may take to prevent a fresh invasion of East Prussia, according to German advices received here.

ALEXANDRIA, VA.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The Pall Mall Gazette of London, said yesterday it understands the former Kaiser will be legally indicted for invading Belgium in violation of the neutrality treaty.

A big propaganda fund has been raised to defeat the league of nations in the United States, former Attorney General Gregory declared in an interview.

The declaration of Berlin strikers which recently conferred with the German cabinet at Weimar announced it would abandon its demand for trial of the Hohenzollerns, Von Hindenburg and Ludendorff, providing the government would grant all other claims, according to information received in Paris yesterday.

Socialist Congressn-elect Victor L. Berger, sentenced to 20 years in the penitentiary after trial at Chicago, yesterday faced another trial jury in Madison, Wis., on the same charges—violation of the espionage act. Berger, arraigned in Federal courts with State Seantor Louis A. Arnold, entered a plea of not guilty.

The balloon has been cut loose, according to experts in Chicago yesterday, commenting on the unfixed hog prices. Packing house officials said they expected immediate advances in live hog prices, to marks far above the $20 record set last winter. "Prices will be up for two or three years to come," said F. W. Waddell, head of Armour & Co., pork and provisions department.

Mrs. Elizabeth Crum, 55 years old, 404 Thirteenth street northwest, Washington, was instantly killed yesterday when struck by an automobile driven by Frank Di Bennnedetts, 741 Eighth street southwest, while standing near the street car platform at Thirteenth street and Pennsylvania avenue. Di Bennedetts is being held at the First precinct station house to await the action of the jury.

Henry Ford only made upwards of $12,000,000 last year, and, therefore, the income taxes he will pay in the next few days will be less by a million or so than last year, it developed yesterday in Detroit. For the past few days a large staff of accountants, attorneys, clerks and stenographers have been hard at work figuring up Ford's debt to the government, and yesterday the job was far from completed. It was estimated Ford's income taxes will amount to around $6,000,000.

Suffrage in North Carolina received a serious set back yesterday when the Senate is attributed to voting down the Connor bill of election on the woman's suffrage amendment to the constitution. This action on the part of the Senate is attributed to voting down of the Everitt bill in the house Wednesday night. The Everitt bill provided that women be given right to vote in municipal elections. It is not probable that further efforts on behalf of suffrage will be made at this session, in view of the fact that the general opinion is that such an effort will prove futile.

In a recital which thrilled and fascinated his listeners, Col. Raymond Robins, of Chicago, who was in Russia for the American Red Cross, gave the Overman subcommittee of the Senate yesterday his impression of the Bolsheviki movement and some inside facts concerning the reasons for its rise. It revealed secrets of the ambassadorial files in Petrograd; it told why the treaty of Brest Litovsk was ratified when neither Lenine nor Trotsky wanted it; it explained why the allied powers intervened with troops in Siberia. Running through it all was the story of Col. Robin's intimate association with Trotsky and Lenine, his defiance of their power and his efforts to hold Russia in line as an enemy of Germany after the Bolshevists had attained the ascendancy.

VIRGINIA NEWS

To combat illiteracy in the State the platform of the Virginia Cooperative Educational Association will be revised to permit the use of rural schools as neighborhood centers and for the establishment of night schools. Dr. Charles G. Maphis, of the University of Virginia, is chairman and J. H. Binford and Mrs. Robert Maynard are members of a committee named to devise the plans.

Governor Westmoreland Davis was requested yesterday by prominent citizens of Roanoke and other Virginia cities to call a special session of the legislature for the purpose of working out plans for meeting the new Federal aid appropriations for road building. Of the Federal aid fund $1,250,000 is immediately available for Virginia roads, with $1,900,000 more available on July 1.

The board of visitors of the University of Virginia, in special session Wednesday, approved the establishment at the university of one or more units of the reserve officers' training corps, beginning with the opening of the session of 1919-1920. A unit of coast (heavy) artillery will first be formed, probably to be followed later by engineering and signal corps units.

Approximately 500 soldiers who recently arrived at Camp Lee from overseas were mustered out of service yesterday, each man receiving a cash bonus of $60. Practically all of them were veterans of battles in France, and a large majority of them had suffered from wounds or from gas. The men are from Pennsylvania, Virginia, West Virginia, South and North Carolina and Tennessee.

Oliver J. Sands, president of the American National Bank, of Richmond, has been appointed chairman of the Victory Liberty Loan committee for the state of Virginia. Mr. Sands has accepted and will enter upon his duties immediately, The Virginia committee will be organized as soon as possible. In the four loans offered by the government in the Liberty series, this State subscribed more than $204,000,000, its per capita subscription being $23.80.

Spanish influenza established a new record for fatalities in Warren county Wednesday when the wife, daughter and mother-in-law of James Clatterbuck, who lives near Browntown, died within three hours. All of the deaths were due to pneumonia which followed the influenza. Clatterbuck and several other members of his family are still critically ill. According to reports reaching Luray, almost the entire population in certain communities of that country have been almost decimated by the disease since the first outbreak in October.

UNCLE SAM SAYS:
During the War it was patriotic not to build.
Now we can best show our patriotism by building.
